Welcome to your dream home with over 3200sqft of living space !! This beautifully updated, fully finished walkout backs directly onto a huge park and offers breathtaking panoramic Mountain views. Step inside to discover brand-new carpet throughout, fresh exterior trim, and stylish updates. At the front of the home, a French door den provides the perfect space for a home office or craft room. The heart of the home is the classy, modernized kitchen, featuring additional functional upper cabinets, gorgeous new quartz island with built-in cabinets and seating for six, PLUS a hidden charging station (keep your devices powered and out of sight). Youâ€™ll love the custom brick feature wall with matching fireplace, new backsplash, prep sink, and push-button garburator all designed for the resident home chef or avid entertainer. As you venture upstairs to an overly generous bonus room that is perfect as a playroom, family space, or future theatre room (pre-wired for a surround sound system) EASILY UPDATED TO TWO ADDITIONAL BEDROOMS-you'll also appreciate two built-in desks that will make homework or remote work a breeze. The primary bedroom is a showstopper with a true barn wood wall, sweeping mountain views, walk-in closet, and a serene ensuite. Two additional bedrooms and a full bath complete the upper level. "If the kitchen is the heart of the home, then this basement is the backbone â€“ tough, stylish, and built for good times and real living." The walkout opens directly to the park, extending your backyard. Easily turn your basement into a "studio apartment" when guests come to visit, without losing the space of a bedroom day to day, with a custom King-size Murphy bed (complete with built-in charging outlets). Step into the lower bathroom with function and style in mind. A spacious walk-in shower with sleek tile work, matte black fixtures, and an industrial inspired decor. Perfect for unwinding after a long day or gearing up for the next. Enjoy the rec room for cozy movie nights thanks to a projector screen and custom built-outs. Entertain in style at the show-stopping bar with a rustic red brick wall, Douglas Fir industrial shelving, upgraded 20-amp wiring for appliances, with a piano bar for that added touch of masculine chic. Even the utility room impresses with a granite workbench, sink, AND a compressed air line to both the utility room and kitchen – perfect for any power tool enthusiast. The garage is finished with a knock-down ceiling, pegboard walls, and an upgraded CALCANA Gas Radiant Heater for year-round comfort. Additional gas rough-ins were thoughtfully added for a second furnace, kitchen gas range, and deck BBQ line – because every detail matters. The home also features built in speakers, air conditioning, central vac, sprinkler system, and hot tub wiring.
